BALLABROOIE,
HIGH GROUND,
BANGALORE.

26th Jan. 1915

Your Highness,

I received Your Highness' gracious letter here Yesterday.

Barring his slight indisposition, the tour of H.H the Yuvaraja & myself was entirely satisfactory in every respect. We saw much & heard much and I have no doubt His Highness' visit to the Mahrad will indeed help to take a kindly interest in the years to come in the prosperity of that much neglected tract.

With reference to Your Highness' very kind enquiries, I think both of us are able to assure Your Highness that no

Embarrassment [illegible] has not existed.

Our objects, views & interests being identical there was no occasion for any.

The Union's scheme is under study but still incomplete. We will submit a note for orders as soon His Highness' return to Bangalore

I remain, Sir and Madam,
Your Highness' most obedient servant,

M. Visvesvaraya
